A light bodied, amber coloured American style Pale Ale, strong on grapefruit and stone fruit flavours with a hint of citrus. Bock is a rich dark brown beer with a malty aroma and toasty caramel flavour. It is true to style with a delicate balance of malt and hops. An already full-flavoured IPA is made even bigger by using fresh 'green' hops infused into the slowly conditioned beer. A traditional London Porter with a secret ingredient giving flavours of chocolate and honey. Said ingredient does not exist. Golden coloured Pale Ale. Well balanced with a citrus fruit aroma and feel, leading to a bitter finish.

In the Belgian saison style with classic saison yeast. Lots of plum juice gives a ruby colour. Don't expect sweet. Smooth, black stout with toffee, chocolate, vanilla and fruit hints, with a strawberry end note.

A new Sussex 'Picebrewery'! Smooth and full-bodied stout with subtle roasted malt flavours.

A quaffable rich, velvety brew with a chocolate flavour and a creamy head. This beer has converted hundreds of people. Copper brown in colour with malt and toffee aromas. Sweet malt and dark toffee flavours leading to a slightly sour finish.

A deep golden coloured IPA with a rich and warming body. On top of this, a blend of hops from around the world. Mark is launching this punchy, smooth IPA here at the festival! Pitch Shifter is a light amber IPA, harmonizing malt and hops.

An easy drinking session bitter. Good bitterness with a backbone of biscuit malt. Grassy spice coming through. A refreshing pale ale. Made using top quality Bavarian lager malts and Hallertauer hops combined with an English hop.

Gun's take on an English Bitter. Except it's more than that. Six malts combine with German, UK and Kiwi hops. Brewed using a single malt, and hopped with a selection of three varieties giving a well-balanced finish. Very smooth.

IPA made with a rye and spelt base and 8 world hop varieties for a full-flavoured, juicy IPA.

Porter with added cold brewed coffee using the house beans from friends' local coffee shop, Twin Pines. This is a session strength West Coast IPA containing a cocktail of new world hops culminating in fresh hop character.

First Class Best Bitter from first class brewers. Brewed with finest Sussex grown malts, Admiral and Golding hops. Conqueror is a stout full of character. It is a triumphant blend of flavours; sweet and malty, smooth as silk and smooth.

Golden Ale has a warm malty body and a floral hop flavour. It's the beer that started Hop Yard, and it's still a favourite. Founder's is a rich Best Bitter with a dark amber hue and a rounded malty palate. It is suffused with subtle caramel notes.

An indulgent double mashed golden barley wine. Complex undertones of fig, raisin and berry fruits. Soft and smooth. Single malt and single hop pale ale. A Maris Otter malt backbone with New Zealand Nelson hops to give a punchy finish.
